July 2015

Dear Elkhart Community Schools' Staff and Students:

The Elkhart County 4-H Fair is having an Education Day on July 24, 2015. All students and staff of Elkhart Community Schools are eligible for a free ticket into the fair until 5pm on Friday, July 24, 2015.

There are three options for students and staff to earn free admittance. One of the three items from the following list must be presented to the Education Day tent located at Gate G for free admittance:

1. This letter;
2. A current student or staff identification card (ID); or
3. The student's 2014-2015 report card.

This year's activities in Heritage Park are student-centered and have many hands-on aspects, plus local high school groups will perform on the Park Stage throughout the afternoon. The performance schedule is:

- 12:00pm: Goshen Percussion Ensemble
- 12:30pm: Goshen Chamber Orchestra
- 1:00pm: Goshen Crimson Men's Choir
- 1:30pm: Goshen High School Crimsonaires
- 2:00pm: Concord Jazz Band
- 2:30pm: Elkhart Memorial High School Percussion
- 3:00pm: Fairfield Jazz Band
- 3:30pm: Concord Dance Team

In addition, the 42nd Annual Cheerleading Contest will start at the grandstands at 1 p.m.

During the course of the day at Heritage Park:

- ETHOS will feature underwater robotics, hands-on science exhibits and the Science To Go bus.
- Purdue Polytechnic will have the Robomaker 3-D printer, a helicopter drone and science and technology information.
- Southwestern Michigan College will have an interactive virtual-reality display and Oculus Rift demonstrations at 11:00am, 1:00pm and 3:00pm featuring prize giveaways.
- The Elkhart Area Career Center will have face painting, hair braiding, manicures, firefighting skills, a fire truck, horticulture demonstrations, small-engine demonstrations, EMT demonstrations and 4-D anatomy all on display.

We look forward to celebrating education with you on Education Day at the Elkhart County 4-H Fair!

Sincerely,

Shawn M. Hannon
