DECISION MAKERS: CASE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE MEMBERS:

The IEP team has considered whether or not the student requires specialized formats of standard print material. Consideration should include the following:

- Yes No Student receives special education services as a student with a visual impairment and requires specialized formats to access the curriculum.

If yes, there must be certification on file, by a competent authority (see definitions page), documenting that the student has a visual disability (see definitions page) that prevents him from reading standard print materials.

-OR-

- Yes No Student receives special education services as a student with a physical limitation that impairs his/her ability to access standard print material and requires specialized formats to access the curriculum.

If yes, there must be certification on file, by a competent authority (see definitions page), documenting that the student has a physical disability that prevents him from reading or using standard print materials.

-OR-

- Yes No Student receives special education services as a student with a reading disability resulting from organic dysfunction and of sufficient severity to prevent reading standard print material in a normal manner. The student requires specialized formats to access the curriculum.

If yes, there must be certification, from a competent authority (see definitions page) on file documenting that the student has an organic dysfunction that prevents him from reading standard print.

CHECK ONE:

- Student is Chafee qualified and is eligible to receive formats from the NIMAC/ICAM. (Check if the answer to any of the above is "Yes". If checked, complete Form #2 (DETERMINATION OF SPECIALIED FORMATS), Form #3-A (ICAM ADD/UPDATE STUDENT DATA), and Form #3-B (ICAM REQUEST FORM)).
- Student is not eligible for Chafee qualified services but the Case Conference Committee has determined the student requires specialized formats of instructional materials. (If checked, complete Form #2 (DETERMINATION OF SPECIALIZED FORMATS), Form #3-A (ICAM ADD/UPDATE STUDENT DATA), and Form #3-B (ICAM REQUEST FORM)).
- Case Conference Committee has determined that Student does not require specialized formats of instructional materials.
